The DIMMER VIEW

Crime, Bureaus and Foreign Aid – A View From Resignation Week

The week had come when the man elected to serve this country as president for four years admitted that circumstances created by his judgments had made the effective completion of his term impossible.

For more than a year now, this nation's business has been swept under the carpet while lawmakers occupied themselves with the presidential problem rather than people problems.

Still, momentum from weeks before carried ideas and opinions into the open. From the welter of material that crosses this writer's desk was chosen three points of view that unquestionably were developed earlier. But they are interesting because they came at a time when there was an otherwise political action vacuum.

State Senator H. L. Richardson was concerned about the sorry situation that exists in law enforcement.

He called it "Crime Without Punishment" referring to the survey made by New York State — a survey supressed for three years until it was subpoenaed as evidence in a Bronx Supreme Court case.

It tends to show that "rehabilitation" not only does not rehabilitate but "rehab" programs makes it worse than prison terms. Recidivism was greater among the rehabs than those who served prison terms. "In some cases it increased the recidivist rate," Richardson noted.

The study, which advocates of "prison reform" sought to repress, indicates that modern reforms are negative and have little relationship to ending crime and restoring individual prisoners to more meaningful lives.

"Turning the vast majority of felons loose on the foolish theory that if one is helped, it makes the whole batch worthwhile is costing California and the nation billions of dollars and thousands of lives. The public is being used as a test-tube for social experiments and the law-abiding are paying the bill in dollars and suffering," Richardson says.

State Senator John Stull is concerned with newly formed agencies that have become policymakers, independent of the people. These appointees may flaunt the public interest, loyal, initially, only to their appointing angels, he says.

Once appointed, they may ignore the public, selectively following a course dictated by hysterical environmentalists or other special interests. They have no direct responsibility nor loyalty to the taxpayers, and the taxpayers may expect nothing in return.

Stull refers to a regional Bay Conservation and Development Commission in the San Francisco Bay area, complete with a moratorium upon development of private property. An appointive board with life or death permit issuing powers.

He also refers to the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) with decisions affecting the operation of business and industry being made by appointees rather than elected officials.

There's the State Water Resources Control Board, which he said recently interpreted its jurisdictional mandate as encompassing all "waters of the United States" thereby including all surface waters, rivers, tributaries, irrigation ditches and drainage channels.

A new force says Stull, is the Energy Resource Conservation and Development Commission. It will have charge of the use of electrical energy including allocation of it. This, in itself, will control population limits and land use.

And the grand-daddy of all the appointive policy boards — the proposed State Land Use Commission and the Department of Land Use Management. All land, except that under the jurisdiction of the coastal zone commissioners, will become subject to decisions made by these quasi-legislative appointive commissioners.

Stull is likewise disturbed by federal bodies such as the Federal Energy Office and the Environmental Protection Agency which dictates daily upon our individual life-styles, immune from protestations of voters and taxpayers.

He questions the need for cities and counties, with their elected governing boards. The elected boards, he says, are becoming nothing more than administrative arms of appointees, czars who are accountable to no one.

As a result, representative government is under attack, he says, but it is being done carefully, with cunning and with no visible, deliberate confrontation which might arouse the public. The public must serve notice, Stull says, upon elected representatives that they will not tolerate further erosion of directly accountable, elective government.

U. S. Senator Alan Cranston made his contribution to the "concern" scene. He's worried about inflation and says part of it is due to our foreign aid and defense programs.

"If Congress is serious about making major cuts to balance the budget, cuts must come from those two categories. And foreign aid, especially to authoritarian governments, is the obvious place to start."

Cranston said there are 57 authoritarian governments on the foreign aid list which "exert various degrees of repression in restricting the liberties of their people.

"They range from one-man or one-party rule to out-and-out police states and 18 governments which the State Department itself classifies as 'military dictartorships'," he said.

He listed 57 governments and the amount they are to receive under the present administration.

Figures are in millions unless otherwise indicated and are either economic or military aid or both:

Afghanistan — $17½; Algeria — $1.4; Bolivia — $36; Brazil — $69.3

Burma — $5; Cambodia — $55; Chile — $85; Egypt — $253.1; Ethiopia — $48

Ghana — $85.6; Greece — $71; Guatamala — $21.4; Haiti — $11; Honduras — $28.2

Indonesia — $221.4; Iran — $1.6; Jordan — $237.7; Korea — $410.4

Ivory Coast — $2.1; Lesotho — $1.7; Liberia — $9.6; Mali — $1.2

Morocco — $49.2; Nepal — $7; Nicaragua — $33.6; Pakistan — $123

Panama — $22.3; Paraguay — $7.8; Peru — $38.6; Philippines — $103.7

L.G. Cafe Said Ticket Office For Nude Dancers Party Boat

A Lemon Grove night spot was listed as one of the key points in a party houseboat operation involving nude women dancers.

In Lemon Grove, the Naughty Spot, at 7268 Broadway, a club featuring completely nude waitresses, was listed as one of the places party boat patrons were required to pay a fee and be stamped on the back of the hand as a receipt.

The boat was raided early Sunday morning anchored a half mile off the P st. Pier in Chula Vista.

Of the 40 persons aboard, 17 were arrested on narcotics charges. 23 were taken ashore and released.

The 3:30 a.m. raid was headed by Sgt. Gil Bretsch, head of the Chula Vista Narcotics Detail. It involved police from National City; Harbor Police; State Bureau of Narcotics; the Drug Enforcement Administration; Deputy District Attorney and Sheriff's Deputies in a helicopter.

Undercover agents got aboard by paying $4 to a San Diego night club, then $6 which was collected at Naughty Spot where they were told they could get aboard the party boat by driving to the J street Marina, flash headlights and get aboard a boat that would convey them to the barge.

The agents boarded the party boat at 1 a.m. and set off a flare which brought police boats and the helicopters.

None of those arrested were from the Lemon Grove or Spring Valley area. Names of the 23 released were not made available.

Hold-up Man Uses Hatchet In Liquor Store Attempt

"Give me your money," the customer of Windmill Liquor, 8291 Broadway said to Walter Brien Starr, the store's clerk, late Monday night.

Starr, who lives in La Mesa, wasn't sure he heard right until the youth, a blonde white male about 23 years old and about 5-10, took a hatchet from the grocery bag he was carrying and slashed at him.

Starr, shielding his head, caught the blow on his forearm. The force of the blow knocked him to the floor after he had crashed into a rack of bottles, breaking some of them.

He pleaded with the assailant not to hit him, promising to give him the money. Starr then took a revolver from the register instead of the money. He fired a shot at the robber but missed.

Several witnesses reported having seen a person answering the description soon afterward.

S.V. Man Loses Suit

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—Damages of $132,385 against a Spring Valley man have been awarded by a Superior Court jury.

Daniel Perettie, of 3365 Central ave., was sued by a San Diego man as the result of a scuffle in Oct. 1970, when both were working as used car salesmen for Peck Buick, San Diego.

The plaintiff, William R. Manion, the father of seven children, claimed Perettie knocked him down in a scuffle and he suffered head injuries. He testified that he has been unable to work since the incident because of numbness in his left arm, faulty memory, insomnia and difficulty with his vision and hearing.

The jury was told that Manion has received from Workman's Compenstaion compensatory payments of $3.775 and medical payments of $1,956.

S.V. Woman Listed as Bridge Victim

A Spring Valley woman who was driving across the San Diego-Coronado Bay bridge was observed as she stopped her car shortly after 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Witnesses said Mary Irene Girdler, 38, of 10707 Jamacha blvd., space 174, then climbed the bridge railing and fell to her death.

Mrs. Girdler's body was recovered within a few minutes by the San Diego Unified Port District Police, according to Max Murphy, supervising coroner.

Mrs. Girdler is survived by her husband, Rudolph.

S.V. Rotary To Host Hass

J. Lawrence Hass, Brawley, Rotary International district governor, will make his official visit to the Spring Valley Rotary club at its weekly luncheon on Friday, August 23, at the Oxbow Inn, according to William R. Bridwell, club president.

On the day before, Hass will confer with Bridwell, Sec. Kenneth J. Taylor, and other officers and members about club and district projects and administrative matters.

J. Lawrence Hass

The Spring Valley club is one of 39 Hass leads as governor of Rotary District 534, which comprises San Diego and Imperial counties and a part of Riverside County.

A retired banker, Hass is one of 356 district governors serving Rotary, an international men's organization whose 16,100 clubs enroll 758,500 members in 151 countries.

Hass will urge Spring Valley Rotarians to bring more eligible and qualified business and professional men of the community into Rotary membership, and to rededicate themselves to "Rotary's ideal of service: helping others."

Spring Valley Chamber Acts in Face of Burglary; Bad-Checks

A Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce directors meeting was held this week at the Troy Cafe, Spring Valley.

According to President Ed Fleming the agenda centered on burglary and bad-check prevention; two current poblems the Chamber has turned its attention toward.

The Chamber has published a booklet entitled, "40 Ways to Protect the Home," and is available at the Chamber Office, 9060 Memory ln., or from any member of the Chamber of Commerce.

Fleming also said the Spring Valley Women's Club has provided an engraving tool at each of the three Spring Valley Fire Stations that may be checed out by residents in order to label small appliances and valuables—a useful idea in identifying and reclaiming stolen or recovered goods. This engraving project has proven successful in other communities in California, and is now being employed statewide as a burglary fighting "tool."

The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce also coordinates a bad-check hot line that cuts off a bad-check passer's chances of bilking Spring Valley Merchants.

The next CoC general meeting will be held on September 16.

Sentencing Due Contractor On Fund Conversion Charge

A Lemon Grove contractor, Bruce Everett Discher, of 7992 Palm st., has been convicted on a charge of diverting funds to an improper use.

He was convicted in a non-jury trial and will be sentenced August 27.

The district attorney charged that Discher, head of Discher Construction Co., accepted $17,000 for remodeling a home on Yoanda ave. The money was used for a construction project at another location.

$5,000 in liens were found against the Yolanda ave. property and the owners were forced to pay another contractor $3,500 to get the work completed.

Municipal Court Judge William A. Graham convicted Discher of a misdemeanor charge of diversion of construction funds to an improper use, but acquitted him of a second charge involving diversion of funds through criminal actions while acting as an agent.

Discher Construction Co. has been declared bankrupt since the event, the district attorney said.

Detectives Warn On Insurance Fraud Operator

East County insurance policy holders who pay their premiums in cash are urged to contact the Sheriff's Fraud squad if their representative was 33-year old Samuel D. San Miguel.

Detective Dick Rabell said that San Miguel had been arrested this week after collecting $67.50 a month on a non-existent insurance policy from an invalid Santee resident who has been bed-ridden since Pearl Harbor.

The policy had been cancelled in April, 1973 for non-payment of premiums. San Miguel had collected each month for three years and continued to collect after the policy was cancelled.

The last payment was made while detectives listened in an adjoining room.

Rabell said the victim became suspicious when San Miguel failed to return $10 in change for his July cash payment. He was told by the insurance company that San Miguel had been terminated in May. He called the Sheriff's office. Detectives Rabell and Andrew Nossal waited until the August transaction was completed and arrested San Miguel. He is now in County Jail on $2,000 bail, charged with grand theft and second degree burglary.

May Operate Route

Rabell said that San Miguel had material on four insurance companies in his possession and suspect that he worked a route. His victims would consist mostly of infirm, elderly or invalid persons. He is believed to have worked primarily in the east county.

Those who suspect that their cash premium payments are being pocketed should contact Detectives Rabell or Nossal at 236-3113. Both detectives worked from the Lemon Grove office of the Sheriff's Department last year.

Grossmont Fall Enrollment Hits State Fund Mark

Supt. Robert Burnham said this week that his earlier estimates of a $1 million dollar loss of state funds, tied to Grossmont College enrollment, was inaccurate.

Burnham said that the average daily attendance figure (ADA) upon which the state basis its school district apportionment will not fall below that of last year. The state funds will be available now due to a surge in enrollment over the past week.

The budget adopted by the District recently reflected a 5% estimated drop in ADA. The state consequently apportioned $4,661,083 this year to the district as opposed to a $5,225,034 allotment last year.

Any recovered state monies cannot be incorporated into this year's budget, however funds can be applied to a reserve account to show a revenue balance for the next fiscal year, said Burnham.

Man Held in L.G. Bar Stabbing

A sailor who is charged with stabbing a Lemon Grove bar patron in the abdomen Monday night, is in the County Jail and his victim is in Grossmont hospital in "guarded" condition.

Sheriff's deputies reported that the stabbing occurred about 11 p.m. when two Negroes involved Thomas L. Greenwalt, 31, a lance corporal assigned to Camp Pendleton Marine Corps Base, in an argument at the Silver Spur Cafe, 7569 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

Witnesses said two blacks entered the cafe just before the assault—one "wearing a turban with a patch of reddish hair on the left side."

At the height of the argument, the turbanned black, later identified as Marshall Douglas Stanley, 38, a sailor from NAS Livermoore, left the cafe momentarily. He had a knife when he returned, witnesses said.

One of the patrons called the sheriff's department. A patrol arrived as Stanley, and Oscar Will Babers of San Diego were driving away in Stanley's Thunderbird.

Greenwalt had been stabbed four times and was bleeding profusely.

Blood on Stanley's clothes and the knife matched Greenwalt's. Babers was not charged.

Stanley was charged with assault and assault with a deadly weapon pending the outcome of Greenwalt's condition. He was to be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court sometime Wednesday.

Gift-Airplane Added To Sheriff's Air Force

It's almost like a foreign aid in reverse. We're always giving planes to foreign countries.

Now, an airplane has been given to a local law enforcement group by an area family.

The airplane is a gift to the Sheriff's Department.

It was given by the family of the late Fred Davies. Davies was a charter member of the Sheriff's Aero Squadron, a group of civilians who contribute their planes and their time in search and rescue operations.

Sheriff John Duffy described the $26,000—1970 Super Cub as "the best equipped in the world with everything in it that a 707 has, except room and weather radar.

Duffy said the plane, capable of flying for eight hours at 40-115 m.p.h. will be used in regular patrol duty "especially in the outlying areas while our helicopters are patrolling the more heavily populated areas". It will also be used in search and rescue operations and in back country fires.

Because of the plane's all-weather capability it can be flown when weather conditions ground the three helicopters of the Sheriff's Air Force.

Davies operated an automobile agency in addition to other business enterprises.

Girl Friends Take Loot

Ardith Janette Rock, of 10429 San Carlos dr., in Spring Valley, left 19-year-old Robert, her son, in charge of the house when she went away for a weekend last month.

Monday, she reached the end of her patience. She reported to the sheriff's office that during her absence six gold rings and a pearl necklace worth $600 were taken from her home. Her patience was exhausted, presumably, because the girls who were said to have taken the items didn't bring them back as promised.

How the girls got the items in the first place? Well, son Robert, and a friend, located a couple of girls who agreed to stay over, so the report indicates. During the visit the girls took the jewelry, it was reported. They promised to bring the missing jewelry back but returned only one ring—a ring that was not even listed as missing.

The sheriff department's report did not indicate what action was to be taken — or against whom.

BUSINESS AS USUAL — These pictures bring several things to mind, depending upon whose shoes you're in. The downtown Lemon Grove scene (left) is nerve wracking for customers and even passersby. The crowded street rings a happier note in the Broadway Business community however, as a recent County Economic report seems to underscore. Lemon Grove registered a rise in 1st quarter 1974 taxable sales, while the neighboring city of La Mesa (R) recorded a decline. These photos, taken a few minutes apart last Friday afternoon, seem to tell the story. The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce will be shouldering the burden, along with the county, of figuring out how to park amidst our prosperity.

VEHICLE SHOW — The College Grove Shopping Center will present the Semi-annual recreational vehicle show August 15th thru the 18th on the west side parking lot. Over 200 Motor Homes, Campers, Travel and Tent Trailers, Van Conversions and Mini-Homes will be on display during the 4 day show sponsored by the College Grove Merchants Association and the San Diego Recreational Vehicle Dealers Association. Mary Lloyd, current title holder of "Miss Oceanside" has been named "Miss R.V." and will be on hand to greet visitors.
The show hours will be the same as store hours. The public is cordially invited and there is no admission charge.

Slimmer Beef Might be Better, at Less Cost

An agricultural research project at the University of California has turned up information that could save consumers of beef more money than it will save beef producers.

Preliminary results reported to the Council of California Growers indicate younger beef animals can spend less time in feedlots and still supply tender and tasty meat. Of course, grading standards must be revised before the savings can occur, and that probably will require a good deal more research.

Ken Ellis, an animal scientist with the University of California Extension Service in Fresno County, explained that current grading standards used by the U. S. Department of Agriculture require certain visible amounts of fat called "marbling" in the red portion of the meat for it to receive the "Choice" grade.

Too Much Fat

"Beef animals now being marketed are much younger than before, and our research shows we are actually overfeeding and overfattening these younger animals," he said. Ellis believes feeding time can be shortened substantially for younger steers.

If the shorter stay in feedlots proves acceptable, costs would be cut significantly, eventually bringing lower retail beef prices. Cattle feeders would welcome the lower costs at their end, since they have posted losses of $1.5 billion nationwide during the recent cost-price crunch.

Save on Feed

George Strathearn, manager of the California Beef Council, is already encouraged by results from the project, called the California Beef Carcass Study. "We think the final taste tests will show we are wasting time, money and precious feed grain putting unneeded extra fat on animals so they will meet current grading standards," he said.

"U.S.D.A. grade changes are necessary to allow the beef industry to take advantage of increased growth rates and genetic improvements and still market young animals with enough marbling to insure consumer acceptance," Strathearn said.

Strathearn said the California beef industry plans to seek consumer support for new grading standards when final taste tests are completed in the project later this year. If the standards are made more flexible on meat from younger animals, fattening procedures can be streamlined and beef can be supplied to consumers at lower costs.

Seniors Tax Help Assured

Trained members of Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) will be assisting with the Senior Citizen Property Tax Assistance Program during the month of August at 21 locations throughout San Diego City and County.

RSVP members have been trained by the Franchise Tax Board to offer free assistance in filing status, filing requirements and qualifications, and any questions relating to the Senior Citizens Property Tax Relief Act.

This Act is intended to provide property tax relief to individuals who are 62 years or older as of January 1, 1974 and have been a resident of California as of January 1, 1974. These persons must have owned and occupied their home between July 1, 1973 and June 30, 1974 of the current fiscal year. They also must have a household income not in excess of $10,000 for the previous calendar year.

For additional information on dates and loctaions for this tax assistance call RSVP at 238-1262.

Area Church Youth 'Do it All' for People, Cars

The Vista La Mesa Youth are sponsoring a "Pancake Wash" this Saturday from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. at the Vista La Mesa Christian Church on Massachusetts ave., Lemon Grove.

A reliable source has told this newspaper that the pancakes are to be eaten, not washed.

The wash, it seems, was a notion conjured by ambitious Vista La Mesa Youth who, desiring something to do while guests are gobbling pancakes, plan to clean all "participating" automobiles — since these cars apparently won't mind being party to such a gathering.

Breakfast is a mere 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for kids, while the auto-bath will be a buck and a half for trucks and one-twenty-five for cars.

The donations will, appropriately, be donated to the youth fund. (crdc)

Music Minister Returns

Clark Henderson, minister of music at the Shawnee (Okla.) Baptist Church, will conduct a musical program and sing at both the 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. services Sunday in the First Southern Baptist Church, 5651 Water st., La Mesa.

Henderson, now attending Oklahoma Baptist U., was once a resident of La Mesa and minister of music at the Southern Baptist Church, Imperial Beach.

Ecumenical Service Held in Balboa Park

In honor of America's Finest City Week, the Central San Diego Inter-Church Council and the San Diego Ecumenical Conference is sponsoring an Ecumenical Worship Service this Sunday at the Balboa Park Organ Pavilion, at 8:30 a.m.

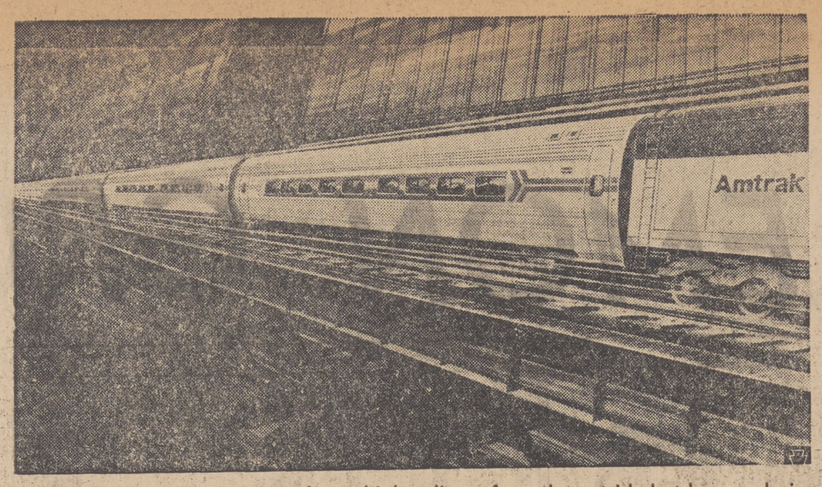
The Worship Service, which is one of the Inter-Church Council's and the Ecumenical Conference's eight worship services offered during the summer, will feature the Rev. George Walker, Pastor of Golden Hills Presbyterian Church and member of the Board of Education, as the main speaker. Also included in the Worship Service is the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church Choir and Douglas Ian Duncan, civic organist.

The Ecumenical Conference, which is cosponsoring the Worship Service, is actively involved in expanding interchurch cooperation throughout San Diego. Now in its fourth year of activity, it has a membership of more than 100 Protestant and Catholic Churches and three Jewish Synagogues as Observers in the San Diego area.

The Conference also serves as an information center for 903 religious bodies in San Diego.

New Church Directory Published in August

Members of the Vista La Mesa Christian church are encouraged to contact the church in order to provide the church with current addresses and phone numbers for its new directory, scheduled to be published this month.



AMTRAK — An artist's drawing of new high-performance passenger cars ordered by Amtrak. Amtrak has ordered 257 of the new cars which will operate on high density routes. The cars, which resemble Metroliners from the outside but have redesigned interiors, will be hauled by electric or diesel locomotives. The first of the new cars will be delivered next spring and will be seen on the San Diego run soon thereafter.

Spring Valley Parks Council Elects Ketell President

At the Annual Election Meeting of the Spring Valley Parks and Recreation Advisory Council, held last week, Herbert R. Ketell was elected President for the coming two years. Mr. Ketell has been Park Chairman for the past 4 years. He is past President of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, and Director of the Kiwanis Club. Dick Olsen was elected Vice-president, and Sue Rainer was elected to the position of Secretary.

When asked for comments, Mr. Ketell stated:

"This coming year should be a challenging one for the Spring Valley Parks & Recreation Advisory Council, and good for Spring Valley people. We now have our new Spring Valley Park open to the public with more new facilities in the offing.

People will be able to picnic in the shade, play games, and enjoy themselves. Funds have been provided for some big trees in the park, and a beautiful fountain. The fountain will have spraying water, colored lighting, and a pool of water surrounding it.

Up to this point Spring Valley has not used one dime of County money in building our park. The funds have been provided all by local citizens in our Park District, although new funds will be forthcoming. Spring Valley and the Valle de Oro area are to receive $147,768 out of the $250,000,000 park fund established in the June primary.

We will soon apply for matching funds from the Federal government to help provide more parks and recreation for Spring Valley citizens.

Moreover, we are working on plans to expand the Spring Valley Park by taking over the old Animal Shelter building and making it into a recreation hall, and installing two tennis courts there. We are working to get a fine Regional Park at Sweetwater Lake, and a big attraction historical park at the Bancroft Historical Museum. We hope to get Goodland Acres Park improved and expanded, and to get other parks established in the Casa de Oro section of Spring Valley.

It is a pleasure to work for these things because parks and recreation help people enjoy life, and bring permanent social benefits."

Cal. Will Expedite Foreign Adoptions

No more than nine months will be needed to approve applications of California couples for adoption of Vietnamese and other foreign-born children, under program changes outlined recently by State Health Director Dr. William Mayer.

"Eighteen to twenty - one months is too long for a reasonable home study and puts California residents at a disadvantage in adopting children waiting in Viet Nam," Mayer said.

He also stated that a backlog of more than 400 inter-country adoption cases will be eliminated by reassigning social workers from other programs in the health department.

Mayer said the actual number of inter-country adoption cases awaiting action is less than 400 because past experience indicates a 50 percent dropout rate by prospective parents after preliminary application. However, the backlog waiting time has been 12 to 15 months, plus about six months for home study, resulting in a time lag of 18 to 21 months before an application is approved.

"California couples seeking inter - country adoptions also experience longer waits for home study than couples interested in adopting an older or handicapped child," the health director said.

A program priority for placing the older or handicapped child was established in 1972, due to a shortage of adoptive homes for children with special needs.

Mayer noted that California children have first claim on adoption service resources of the state. He said the state or a licensed agency becomes a party to the adoption when a home is approved for placement. The responsibility of the department or the agency is to protect and to act in the best interest of the child at all times, he said.

Friends' Pastor Vacations

Pastor Virgil Simpson, leader of the Friends congregation in Spring Valley, and his family will be on vacation during the month of August.

Business will be as usual however, and the church office will be open from 2 p.m.-5 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

Wesleyans Attend Camp, Seek Members

The Skyline Wesleyan Church in Lemon Grove will hold a class preparatory to church membership, August 25 at 5 p.m. in room 209 at the church.

The church is also sponsoring a Senior High camp program at Lake Arrowhead from August 25-30. The high-schoolers have been busy raising money for the event.

Quakers Confer

The Friends Church in Spring Valley will sponsor its Quaker Men's Breakfast this Saturday morning at 7:30 a.m. A short business meeting will be held after the breakfast.

An outdoor barbecue is on tap for family night on the 25th. The affair will include games and fellowship.

Sunday school worship is held at 9:45 a.m. at the church with the morning service following at 11 a.m.

The coast to coast interstate highway from New York City to San Francisco is complete except for about 160 miles.

Copley 'Y' Classes Stress Swimming

The Copley Family YMCA, 3901 Landis st., in San Diego, teaches children of all ages how to swim.

For the safety of the children in your family, the Copley "Y" suggests that you register them for swimming lessons at the earliest age possible. The Copley "Y" has a year around "learn to swim campaign", and a new course of lessons for boys and girls ages 3 and older begins this month. There are classes for all levels of swimming skills, and all instructors are well trained and have a background of years of experience.

In the Tadpole classes, for children 3 to 5 years of age, the Copley YMCA's goal is to teach personal safety and skills that are used in a dangerous situation. A flotation device and a kickboard are extremely effective in freeing the beginner from fear of water, allowing him to concentrate on learning how to swim.

In the beginning class, for children 6 years of age and older, called the Minnows, the children start to learn distance and safety swims, and under careful instructions they continue to advance to higher levels, learning the various strokes and endurance swimming.

These classes are held every afternoon and on Saturday mornings in a series of 10 one hour lessons.

Call 283-2251 for full information.

Veterans Job Source Cited

David A. Leslie, Veteran Service Officer, San Diego County, urges recently discharged veterans who had medical occupational specialties while serving in the Armed Forces to be aware of the employment opportunities open to them under Public Law 93-82, the "Veterans Health Care Expansion Act of 1973."

Under PL 93-82 the Veterans Administration is mandated to carry out a major program for the employment of veterans who have had training and experience in the broad field of health care services.

The VA, with its 171 hospitals and numerous outpatient clinics, offers a rewarding civilian career to the veteran interested in remaining in the field of medicine. Employment opportunities open to the veteran cover all levels of employment from the highly skilled doctor and medical technician, through all administrative levels, to the skilled and unskilled support positions such as crafts and trades, vehicle operators, food service, and housekeeping.

Veterans interested in medical career opportunities with VA should contact the San Diego facility and ask for VA Pamphlet No. 05-58, "From Military Service to Health Careers." Further information can also be obtained by calling the County Veterans Service Office at 236-2223 or by visiting one of the offices at Oceanside, Vista, Escondido, El Cajon or Chula Vista.

Area Obituaries

Newman H. Gist

Memorial services were held Sunday at Conrad Mortuary Chapel for Newman H. Gist, 54, a farrier (horseshoer), of 9168 Harness st., Spring Valley, who died at home August 7.

He had lived in the county for 47 years, coming here from Texas. He became well-known in his trade and served as official farrier for national horse shows at Del Mar fairgrounds.

He worked with the Museum of Man in Balboa Park in 1971 as a coordinator of an exhibit, "Horse Power" which included demonstrations of horseshoeing by several farriers in the county.

He also made horse shoes for show horses and thoroughbreds.

He is survived by his wife, Verna Lee; a daughter, Debra and a son, Guy, both of Spring Valley; a brother Byron; four sisters, who are Goldie Clark, Betty Lilly, Alice Puegh and Veralda Poore.

Walter R. Shimp

Walter R. Shimp, 78, of Lemon Grove died Saturday, August 10 after a long illness.

Mr. Shimp was born in Ontario, Oregon and came to San Diego in 1942. He was a Lemon Grove resident since 1945.

Mr. Shimp was a charter member of the Cecil B. Rhodds American Legion post in Payette, Idaho; a charter member of Barracks 1774, Veterans of World War I. He was a retired cement mason.

Survivors include his wife, Hazel, Lemon Grove, a son and two daughters, eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Telophase Society will conduct private services.

The family requests donations be given to the Cancer Society or Heart Fund, in lieu of flowers.

UCSD Extension Sign-up Opens

Registration for fall classes at University of California Extension, San Diego will open Aug. 19.

Many classes will meet for the first time the week of Sept. 23, with short courses and conferences scheduled throughout the fall quarter.

Prominent among fall courses is one called, "Freud: The Man, His World, His Influence." Speakers such as philosopher Herbert Marcuse, novelist Eleanor Widmer, and psychiatrist Robert Nemiroff will give presentations at this Wednesday evening series beginning Sept. 25 at UCSD.

Another famous figure whose work provides the theme for a course is Virginia Woolf. Class meetings of "Virginia Woolf and the Bloomsbury Group" will be held Tuesday evenings at Roosevelt Junior High School, starting Sept. 24.

"The Ancient Art of Belly Dance," so popular during summer quarter that three class sections were opened, will again be taught by Patricia Beckwith.

Registration hours at Extension are 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, to 4:30 p.m. on Fridays, and 9 a.m. until noon on Saturdays. From Sept. 9-Oct. 5, closing time will be extended to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Army Hospital Trainees Man San Diego Depot

Three San Diego area Army Reservists recently returned from their annual two weeks summer training at Letterman Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco. Lieutenant Marjorie Hillestad, Private Craig Haggen, Spring Valley, and Private David Thurman are all members of the 6252nd U.S. Army Reserve Hospital unit of San Diego which was assigned to the Letterman Hospital for its two weeks annual training.

Hillestad is an operating room nurse, and privates Haggen and Thurman are operating room specialists with the 6252nd. All three were assigned to the Central Material Supply section where they assisted the regular hospital staff in providing all sterile supplies and equipment for the operating and emergency rooms as well as other wards of the hospital.

The 6252nd Hospital unit, of which these individuals belong, is comprised of several sections, which as a units is capable of operating a 750 bed hospital. These various sections include general and neuro surgery, orthopedics, dermatology, gynecology, pediatrics, pharmacology, laboratory operations and dentistry.

For their two weeks annual training, members of the 6252nd were assigned to these various wards of Letterman Hospital to assist the regular hospital staff.

The 6252nd conducts their regular monthly meetings at the San Diego U. S. Army Reserve Center, Van Deman Hall, San Diego. A portion of this training time is spent providing personnel to assist at the Balboa Naval Hospital and the Veterans Administration Hospital, both in San Diego. The 6252nd is a member unit of the 63rd U. S. Army Reserve Command of Los Angeles, commanded by Major General Louis aKufman.

SERBIAN ORTHODOX VOWS — Mr. and Mrs. William S. Angius of Spring Valley, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ellen to Verezh Der Sarkissian of Tehran, Iran. Mr. Sarkissian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Der Sarkissian, also of Iran. The mother of the groom, who has been in the United States this month, will attend the wedding. The ceremony will take place at St. George's Serbian Orthodox Church in Clairemont on August 31. Both the bride-to-be and the groom are graduates of San Diego State University.

IRS TAX ANSWERS ?

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. My wife and I are legally separated, but I still pay for her support. Can I claim her as a dependent?

A. No. A wife is not considered a dependent. You are permitted an exemption for her only by reason of the marital relationship. Thus, if you were divorced or legally separated at the end of the year, you may not claim her exemption, even if you contributed all her support.

Q. Can I deduct the cost of building a recreation room in my basement,

A. No. Such expenses are not deductible, but the cost of the improvement can be added to the basis of your house, so that it will be taken into account in the event you should sell your home.

The cost of building a room for business or rental use may be depreciated.

For more information, see IRS Publication 530, "Tax Information on Deductions for Homeowners." It's available free from your IRS office.

Q. After an audit, the IRS disallowed some of my deductions. I paid the tax, but I sitll think the IRS was wrong, so I filed a claim for refund. How long do I have to wait before I can file suit in Federal court?

A. Claims are usually processed shortly after they are filed. If your claim is rejected, you will receive a statutory notice of disallowance of your claim. If the IRS has not acted on your claim within six months from the date you filed it, you can then file suit for refund in your United States District Court or in the U. S. Court of Claims. You can obtain information about procedures for filing suit in either court by contacting the clerk of your district court or the clerk of the Court of Claims, 717 Madison Place, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.

Moth Seen As Tumbleweed Control

SACRAMENTO—The growth of tumbleweeds, which now costs approximately $500,000 in state highway funds to control, is under a new attack by the California Department of Transportation (CALTRAN of Transportation (CALTRANS).

These rolling plants, which sometimes detach themselves from the ground when seven to nine feet wide, are frequently seen blowing across the highways where they cause motorists to stop or swerve to avoid them, thereby risking serious collisions.

Piled up against freeway fences, they are unsightly and constitute fire hazards, while they must be removed by hand near culverts lest they clog them and cause flooding of the highway.

A species of moth (Coleophora Parthenica), which will live only on tumbleweeds and a desert weed which is poisonous to livestock, will be placed on six-inch tall tumbleweed plants at selected locations by scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The larvae produced by the moths, which are native to Pakistan and Russia, are expected to reduce the size and number of plants.

The moths have been tested in the U. S. Department of Agriculture Biological Control of Weeds Laboratory at Albany, California, for a number of years. The results of these tests have been given the governments of Canada and Mexico which have agreed to their release.

Russian Thistle

Tumbleweeds, also called Russian Thistle, were accidentally introduced into the United States from Russia in 1872 in grain. The plants are widespread in Russia, Pakistan and Egypt where they cause no problems because of the presence of this moth.

The Department of Transportation has budgeted $98,000 for this three-year, tumbleweed-control program to save maintenance costs. It has also applied to the Federal Highway Administration in Washington to help fund the program.

The control of tumbleweeds until now has consisted of treating the plants with herbicides, an expensive process which often fails as the area is reinfested by tumbleweeds which blow for miles from adjacent lands.

Digging up the thistle seems to enhance the propagation as the dug up areas provide fertile beds for the seeds scattered from the rolling plants.

In addition to the cost of tumbleweed control to the California Department of Transportation, these pests cost hundreds of thousands of dollars to other state departments, county agencies and farmers to keep the plants out of canals, fishing streams and drainage ditches.

As areas of tumbleweed growth in Russia are similar in climate to that of the Western United States, it seems reasonable to assume the moths will survive, according to experts of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Gallery Photos Basis for 'Conversations'

"Conversations" — Last in a four part series of evenings with outstanding professionals in the field of photography, films, television and art criticism will be presented at the Fine Arts Gallery in the James S. Copley Auditorium Wednesday evenings August 21 and 28 at 8 p.m.

Los Angeles artist, Bruce Nauman and Larry Urrutia, Director of the Center for Photographic Arts, will discuss the use of photography, films, television and holograms in the art of Nauman, August 21. The final presentation of the series, August 28, will be by a major professional in the field of the motion picture discussing the media of cinema as art. His name has not been released yet.

The program is being offered in connection with the major exhibition "New Photography: San Francisco and the Bay Area" currently on view at the Fine Arts Gallery of San Diego through September 8. For more information call 232-7931.

High School Tax Rate Cut Seen

An estimated 16 per cent increase in assessed valuations in the Grossmont Union High school district may give tax payers a five per cent relief, school administrators said recently.

It may even be cut as much as 16 per cent, John Barrons, an assistant superintendent said.

The present rate is $2.55 for each $100 assessed valuation of property within the district. The final figures will not be known until after the state's funding law is figured. The state fixes the amount of money a district can receive in any year.

During 1973 Wisconsin was the leading milk producing state, with 18.4 billion pounds, followed by California at 10.3 billion pounds, New York at 9.7 billion and Minnesota at 9.4 billion.

This Week's RECIPE

Pinwheel flank steaks, marinated in teriyaki sauce, and delicately molded Sunset Salad makes a meal to savor outdoors on a summer evening. The menu, created in the test kitchens of La Choy Food Products, also includes frozen egg roll appetizers, cooked on a charcoal grill until they're golden brown . . . to be enjoyed while the steaks broil. Marinate the steaks at least 3 hours before cooking.

TERIYAKI GINGER MARINADE
Yield: 3/4 Cup

- ½ cup La Choy Teriyaki Sauce
- 1/4 cup dry red wine
- 1 tablespoon salad oil
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 2 teaspoons chooped fresh parsley
- 1½ teaspoons grated fresh ginger root or ½ teaspoon ground ginger
- Dash freshly ground black pepper

Combine ingredients; mix well. Place 6 pinwheel steaks in a flat china or enamel dish; pour marinade over them. Refrigerate for at least three hours, turning steaks occasionally.

SUNSET SALAD
Yield: 6 Servings

- 2 cups tomato juice
- 1 bay leaf
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 1 tablespoon cold water
- 1 teaspoon La Choy Soy Sauce
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- ½ cup chopped La Choy Water Chestnuts
- ½ cup thinly sliced celery
- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper

Combine tomato juice, bay leaf, salt, and onion. Boil five minutes. Soften gelatin in cold water for five minutes. Strain tomato juice mixture and pour over gelatin; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add soy sauce and lemon juice. Chill until partially set. Fold in water chestnuts, celery, and green pepper. Turn the mixture into a one-quart mold and chill until firm. Unmold on crisp salad greens.

Grossmont Auxiliary Woman Attends National Congress

The Grossmont Hospital Auxiliary representative to the American Health Congress being held in Chicago, Illinois, August 12 through 15, gave a presentation on the Auxiliary's Public Lecture Series which is offered three times yearly at the Hospital auditorium in conjunction with the Hospital administration and medical staff and with Grossmont College.

Offered to the public for the past three years, the Series has presented topics and speakers focusing on many facets of health care and the health field. The next series of lectures will be held in October.

The Auxiliary's representative, Mrs. Donald Housh, president, participated in a panel discussion entitled, 'The Auxiliary's Role in Community Health Education'. She also showed a slide presentation depicting the role of the Auxiliary in the hospital and community. Mrs. Housh will be accompanied by Mrs. Ivan P. Bodine, Auxiliary Public Lecture Series chairman.

MRS. DONALD HOUSH

Only four Auxiliaries in the United States were extended an invitation and include in addition to Grossmont: Children's Hospital, Detroit, Michigan; St. Luke's Hospital Medical Center, Phoenix, Arizona; and Overlook Hospital, Summit, New Jersey. Deemed the largest and most important health care meeting of the year, the Congress offers as keynote speaker, Dr. Joyce Brothers, nationally famous psychologist. Some American Health Congress members are: American Association of Hospitals; Catholic Hospital Association; Health Industries Association; Hospital Public Relations Association and American College of Hospital Administrators.

Sign Controls Set for County

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—An ordinance regulating on-premise signs in all unincorporated county areas has been unanimously adopted by the Board of Supervisors.

Effective August 1, all new signs now require a sign permit. In general, size, height, and number of signs will be governed by street width and applicable speed limit.

Most buildings and lots will be permitted one free-standing sign up to 25 feet high. Sign faces may be 75-175 square feet, with "freeway-oriented" as much as 300 square feet. Billboards, covered by an earlier ordinance, are not included in the provisions.

Flashing or rotating signs will be authorized, but not in combination.

Rooftop signs will require a special-use permit from the County Zoning Administrator, and will be granted "only when there is no alternative."

According to County Planner Dick Empey, "People will have five years to get rid of all existing signs which don't conform."

Grossmont Student Drop Yields 6.4% Budget Cut

The 1974-75 Grossmont College Budget adopted last week by the board reflects, directly, the loss of income due to reduced enrollment this past year.

The new budget is $13.8 million—down 6.4%, which is the percentage of income reduction for the district. The state's primary apportionment tool is the average daily attendance figure. This figure, (ADA) according to assistant for business, William Burns, "...is down 576 from 1973-74. The college enrollment last year was 15,155 and this year the figure is 14,674."

Burns said the ADA and corresponding state funding can be synchronized even at this late date should the enrollment level increase during the next two weeks.

In other action, the board approved the addition of 18 classified personnel positions for the current school year at a cost of $142,663. This figure was included in the new budget.

Area Youth Stage 'The Music Man'

The Department of Youth Activities, Diocese of San Diego, and This Covenant Ark, Theater in the Spirit, will present Meredith Wilson's "The Music Man." Performances in August are the 16, 17 and 18th at 8 p.m. in the Patrick Henry High School Amphitheater, 6702 Windemere dr., San Diego.

The cast of 215, selected from the entire metropolitan San Diego area, ranges in age from 2 to 60. Many family groups are involved in this unique production. Most of the members of the cast, however, are of high school and college age.

Although sponsored by Catholic groups, the cast and production crew members were selected on a non-denominational basis.

This is the biggest event of its kind in San Diego produced by youth.

Tickets are available at all Thearle's Music Stores. A donation is asked of $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for students, and $1 for children 12 and under.

Wild Horse Born In Animal Park

The San Diego Wild Animal Park marked another first early this month when Belkina, a female Przewalski's horse, was born last month.

The filly is the first of the rare mamal born at the Wild Animal Park and only the seventh ever born in the Zoological Society of San Diego's collection.

The Przewalski's horse, the only remaining true wild horse in existence, is the ancestor of today's domestic horse and is rarely seen in the wild.

Besides the new filly, the collection of Przewalski's horses at the Wild Animal Park consists of five adult females, a stallion and a female on breeding loan from the Los Angeles Zoo. All are quartered in a 15-acre expanse near the South Africa section of the Park where gently rolling hills provide ample room for the horses to run.

Bollman Planks Put in State GOP Platform

Mike Bollman, candidate for Assembly in the 77th District, has been named vice chairman of the Republican State Convention in Sacramento.

In accepting the post which came by a unanimous decision, Bollman said "I feel strongly that this platform convention is important because it gives us the opportunity to convey to the people of California the issues we believe in, stand for, and will strive to enact.

During the convention, Bollman introduced a resolution which directs the Secretary of State to call a Democratic state-wide convention as required by law. The Democratic Party has indicated that they do not plan to draft a Party platform. Bollman said, "The law clearly requires both parties to hold state-wide conventions and that party platforms be drafted so that the people of California will know the issues as well as what each major party stands for. The electorate is entitled by law to this information and I would hope the Democrats will fulfill their obligation to the people."

A plank submitted by Bollman which was adopted, is one to continue every effort to improve the quality and the concept of neighborhood schools, which allows students and parents to participate in extra-curricular activities, and to oppose forced bussing when used solely for racial purposes.

Other Bollman planks adopted were as follows:

To continue our efforts to bring about meaningful criminal law reforms with special emphasis on protecting victims of crimes and the public at large.

To continue our efforts to bring clean industries to California, industries which will provide needed jobs for our citizens.

To continue our efforts to check inflation by limiting government spending whenever possible.

Bollman also submitted a resolution supporting the Mandatory Sentencing Initiative, which was adopted by the convention.

Nick Cesena — He works every day

Nick Cesena Off a Day For Birthday — His 80th

Nearly everybody in Lemon Grove knows Nick Cesena.

They should. He's been here about as long as anyone. In 1907 to be precise.

He came here from Ensenada with his uncle and has been here ever since.

What's more, he worked about every one of the days of the 67 years he's lived here.

Cesena, a grading contractor, has lived most of those years at 7672 North ave., his present home.

What makes Cesena newsworthy at this point is that friends will mark his birthday Saturday. His 80th. And on Monday, two days after his birthday party he'll mount his bulldozer and perform grading services every day as he did earlier this week when he fulfilled a contract to install a driveway in La Mesa.

The party is being given by some friends in Alpine for whom Cesena has done considerable work—Mr. and Mrs. David Manning.

Fond Father

The Mannings say the party will have an accent on children. Cesena always had a fondness for children. He should. He fathered a flock of them.

There's Manuel, now 54; Jesus, 52; Robert, 48; Joseph, 22; Teresa, 18, and Norma, 15. Manuel has spent 27 years with Convair; Jesus is retired from the Merchant Marine; Robert is a bulldozer operator, and Joe is in Germany with the U.S. Army.

Cesena went to work for the San Diego, Arizona Eastern RR in the Lemon Grove area as a construction worker for 11 years. Then he pumped water and oil for the SD&E trains for three years. He converted to blacksmithing and worked 15 years for the County of San Diego. And in 1939 he became a grading contractor.

Rather sadly, he tells that he bulldozed out practically all of the lemon orchards from the land that has become the business section of Lemon Grove. "Everybody knew everybody else in the days when lemons were the main industry.

Commercial Community

The quarry, on the south hillside just east of Lemon Grove, and two packing houses —Sunkist and Bryans — comprised the rest of the business complex.

"I sold all my equipment except the one buldozer because I couldn't find dependable people to work," he said. "Now I do all the jobs I take."

Cesena's largest job was the shopping center property owned by the Sonka brothers at Imperial and Golden. "I graded all the land where the First National Bank and Food Basket are. I took out two big Star Pine trees. One was 105 feet tall. There was a pepper tree on the land with a trunk so big I had to take one handle off my six-foot saw to cut through it. It was one of the biggest pepper trees I ever saw."

So here comes year number 80 for Cesena. Does it concern him? "I'm going to work as long as I feel all right," he says. "I've never been sick in my life. I'm going to work for 50 more years."

He's just the fellow who can do it, too. And his many friends will nudge him along toward that goal.

'Plantnaper' Busy

Plants in redwood pots were stolen from the yard of Mary McGuire, a housewife of 2437 Doubletree st., in Spring Valley one night last week.

She estimated the loss at $35.

UFO Identified

A rash of calls to local papers and other media last week stemmed from a strange yellow flash and accompanying cloud trail over the Pacific, clearly visible in Lemon Grove.

A quick call to the County UFO "hot-line" number revealed that the streaker was indeed a rocket, but of U.S. Air Force vintage.

The 2-stage missile had been launched from Vandenberg, on an unannounced mission.

The San Diego Chapter of the Kidney Foundation has begun its annual Christmas and holiday greeting card sale to help fight the continuing battle against kidney disease.

The lithographed, vividly colored cards are tax deductable, with a ten percent discount made on cards purchased by Aug. 24.

Interested persons may visit the Kidney Foundation at 7560 University, La Mesa and see the new selection. Or call the office and a volunteer will bring the full sample selection to home or business.

Chargers At Seattle Sunday; Bonner Wins Prothro Praise

The Chargers will travel this week to Seattle for a Sunday game at 1:30 with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The game will be televised live by channel 39 with Mike Smith and Al Couppee covering. It will also be aired by KSDO radio (1130) with Andrew Musser and Earl Faison.

Seattle was chosen as a site for the game—partly because an NFL franchise becomes opertaive there in 1976. The game will be played at U. of Washington Stadium.

There are other emotional considerations.

San Diego coach Tommy Prothro turned Oregon U. into a college football powerhouse during his 10-year reign from 1955-64. Cardinal football coach, Don Coryell, is a native of Seattle, a former U. of Washington student and was a Husky assistant coach in 1953-54.

Charger general manager Harlan Svare is also from the Seattle area. He comes from nearby Poulsbo.

Coach Prothro said Monday that he planned to use Jesse Freitas at quarterback again but would use second year QB Dan Fouts for a half.

Bonner Looks Good

Prothro is high on Glen Bonner, also from U. of Washington. Bonner was a one-man offense for the Chargers as they beat the New York Jets in the first 1974 sudden-death game 20-14 before 19,036 at San Diego Stadium Saturday night.

Bonner, who lives in Seattle, was the leading rusher.

The 6-foot-2, 202-pound criminology major at Washington has a strong advocate in Charger backfield coach Earnel Durden.

"Glen is an excellent prospect," said Durden, the former Oregon State All-America wingback. "He has an unusual ability to find the right holes at the right time. He is tough and will block. His college training is an asset to him. He has good fundamentals."

Bonner will have his mother, three brothers and three sisters watching him Sunday. He wants to play well for his family, friends and in particular, Husky coach Owens.

"It's all because of coach Owens that I'm getting this chance," said Bonner. "He had enough confidence in me to recommend me to the Chargers. I was hurt last year and did not play well."

On the Chargers, Bonner, the undheralded free agent, is paired as a backfield combination with Bo Matthews, the big fullback from Colorado, who was the second man chosen in the 1974 draft.

Bonner likes his running mate. "I have a lot of respect for Bo. He is strong and fast and we are working well together. We block for each other."

Bonner admits that his sudden success has come "like a shot in the dark. But I'm determined to do the best I can. I am a Taurus and we are determined people."

San Diego fans compare the style of Bonner to former Charger great Paul Lowe. Bonner pleads innocence. "I never heard of him."

Charger rookie linebacker Don Goode has two blocked kicks in two games. He blocked a PAT against San Francisco and a field goal against New York. The No. 1 draft choice from Kansas also made nine tackles and an interception against the Jets.

NEXT WEEK: The Chargers face the New England Patriots at San Diego Stadium on Saturday, Aug. 24, at 8 p.m.

Padres in Chicago for 3 Pirates Here August 23

The final extended road trip of the season for the Padres is heading into its final days as the club prepares to close things out with three games in Chicago and a like number in Montreal with the Expos.

The Padres, who opened the swing with three outings each with Pittsburgh and St. Louis, will be meeting Chicago Aug. 16-18 and then Montreal Aug. 19-21. Following that final series the Padres will have Aug. 22 off to travel back to San Diego for the beginning of a nine-game homestand which will get underway on Aug. 23.

"Those final six games could well be deciding games in the race for the National League Eastern Division pennant," said Padre manager John McNamara. "Chicago appears to be almost out of the picture, but the way everyone in the division is playing, a good winning streak by anyone could give them the pennant.

The series with the Expos will close out the 12-game season schedule with the Canadian club, but the Chicago Cubs have three more games left to play in San Diego as do Pittsburgh and St. Louis.

"We still believe we have a shot at escaping the cellar and catching San Francisco for fifth place," said McNamara, "but we've got to start our move now. We've had pretty good luck against the Eastern Division clubs all season so maybe this will be our chance to start making inroads again. The gap between the Giants and ourselves is not that great, but we have to do the job ourselves and not rely on other clubs by beating the Giants. If we are to get out of the cellar it's up to us to win, it's that simple."

The Padres will take an overall 5-1 record into the series with the Cubs. San Diego won two of the three games played in San Diego earlier in the season and then swept the Cubs at Wrigley Field three straight, the first time ever for the Pads.

Cub fans will remember rookie right-hander Dan Spillner from the sweep as he one-hit the Cubs on June 19 with the only hit being a shot off Spillner's leg by Rick Monday in the third inning.

The Cubs will be the final Eastern Division team to close out the season with the Padres.

San Diego stands at 5-4 against the Expos. The Padres were 4-2 in San Diego and are 1-2 against Montreal on their home field. The Pads haven't won more than three games in Montreal since the first season in 1969 when San Diego won five of the six games played.

Valley Sox Champ Play Saturday

By Paul Stark

The Spring Valley Bobby Sox major All Stars will get tested right off in their quest to bring home the national championship at Buena Park when they square off against Hacienda Heights starting at 4 p.m. Saturday.

Horsemen Face Bulls In Sunday Rejoneador

Horsemanship will be featured with the bullfighting Sunday at the bullring by the sea, Plaza Monumental de Tijuana.

Beginning at 4 p.m. four of bullfighting's finest equestrians will face six bulls of the prestigious Tequisquiapan ranch.

They are Gaston Santos, Felipe Zambrano, and Jorge Hernandez Andres of Mexico, plus Pedro Louceiro of Portugal.

The bullfighter from horseback is known as a rejoneador, and the spectacle is called el rejoneo, or Portuguese-style bullfighting. It is an art that probably started when the Moors began their occupation of Spain early in the eighth century, and the Spanish say that the first great rejoneador was their national hero, Rodrigo Diaz de Bivar—El Cid Campeador, who died in 1099.

The three Mexicans appeared at Tijuana last year in the dirst all-rejoneo cartel ever booked for Tijuana, although such programs have been staged regularly in the Mexican interior.

The rider must guide his mount with his legs and weight movements, for he needs his hands to hold first the rejon (lance) of punishment, which does the work of the picador's pike in aconventional corrida; banderillas, identical with those placed by a torero in the suit of lights; and the rejon of death, instead of a sword.

The horse is a caballo peninsular, or peninsular horse, so called because it was developed on the Iberian peninsula. It also is known as an Andalucian horse and as a "Spanish horse."

The bulls often are three years old instead of four, and their horns are sometimes blunted, both factors being designed to protect the horses, some of which are worth $20,000 to $40,000 after two years of training. And some are not for sale at any price.

Santos, 43, was born in the state of San Luis Potosi. He first fought professionally more than 20 years ago and became a full fledged rejoneador at Lisbon in 1954.

Zambrano, 33, is from the state of Nuevo Leon. He became full-fledged rejoneador in April, 1970, at Monterrey.

Hernandez Andres, 18, of San Luis Potosi, became a professional in June, 1973, at Juarez, after only 30 amateur corridas.

Q's Sign Gregg Lee, UCLA Guard

General Manager Alex Groza of the San Diego Conquistadors announced the signing of Greg Lee, 6-3½, 190 lb. guard from UCLA. Terms of the contract were not disclosed.

Lee played three years on the UCLA varsity squad. In those three seasons, the Bruins compiled a record of 86 victories and only 4 losses.

An exceptionally gifted floor leader, passer and playmaker, Lee was at his very best in the 1973 NCAA title victory over Memphis State when he led the way for UCLA with 14 assists.

"We have been watching Greg this summer in the Southern California Pro Basketball League," said Q's general manager Alex Groza. "He has shown improvement on all phases of his game and is playing with much more ability on an individual basis." (The league is located in Los Angeles)

"Greg has the ability to handle the ball well," continued Groza. "He has had excellent coaching throughout his career and his winning attitude is something we look for in all of our players."

"He may fill the need for the big guard we are looking for to go along with Bo Lamar."

A top star on the UCLA freshman team (average of 17-9 points per game), Lee played his high school basketball in Los Angeles for Reseda High. He was the Los Angeles City Player of the Year in both his junior and senior years.

A good shooter, Greg averaged 29.0, 27.3 and 20.0 points per game during his high school playing days .

Lee was also drafted by the Atlanta Hawks of the NBA and the Portland Trailblazers expressed interest in the UCLA alumnus.

Season tickets can now be reserved for Qs games. Call 225-9511 for information.

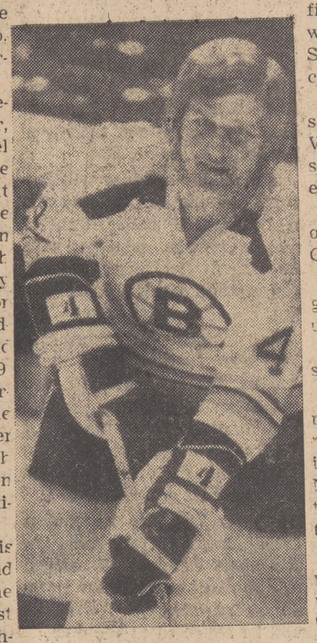
Bobby Orr, Phil Esposito Here To Aid San Diego Amateur Hockey

Bobby Orr and Phil Esposito of the Boston Bruins.

Max McNab and Bill MacFarland hockey executives.

Ernie Myers (KOGO) and Whitman Mayo (Sanford and Son).



Bobby Orr

That's just part of the program for San Diego Amateur Hockey Foundation's benefit dinner Saturday, August 24.

It'll be at Town and Country Convention Center at 7:30. The dinner will be preceded by a cocktail hour at which guests will rub shoulders with famed figures of the sport's scene from San Diego and elsewhere.

There'll be Alan Eagleson, NHL Players Assn. counsel; representatives of the L.A. Kings, Oakland Seals and Vancouver Canucks of NHL; San Diego Mariners and other representatives of the WHL; San Diego Conquistadors of ABA and S.D. Padres.

It's About Hockey

But the program, following dinner, will be hockey. Orr and Esposito will spin hockey yarns; Bill MacFarland, former president of the Western Hockey League will make a presentation from the Hall of Champions to former Gull general manger Max McNab.

McNab has recently been named president of the Central Hockey League and will be headquartered in Dallas.

There will be other hockey figures around, too. These will be announced later as the San Diego hockey picture becomes clearer.

For door prizes, there are such things as a trip to Las Vegas for two; a color teevee set and an electric lawn mower.

For amateur players a pair of Bauer skates and a set of Cooper gloves will be prizes.

Orr and Esposito will autograph color pictures distributed to all guests that night.

NHL film highlites will be shown during cocktail hour.

Ernie Myers, star of KOGO radio will be master of ceremonies of the program following dinner and Whitman Mayo, who is "Grady" of the "Sanford" show will add to the entertainment.

Tickets are $25 with eight persons to a table. About 500 persons are expected to attend.

Chairmen of the event are Kenny Broderick, former Gull star goalie and Al Nickleson, former promotion manager for the Gulls.

Reservations may be made by calling Nickleson or Broderick at 463-7169 or 232-6794, ext. 20.

Phil Esposito

Max McNab

McNab Named President

Max McNab, vice president and general manager of the Gulls Hockey team until the team, and the Western Hockey League suspended operations, was named president of the Central Hockey League in Dallas Monday.

He is already working at his new post, he said by telephone Monday night. But he will be in San Diego next week-end to participate in the Amateur Hockey Dinner August 24 at Town & Country.

They may be made by calling the office of this newspaper at 469-0101 or by writing to Amateur Hockey Foundation, P.O. Box 2836, La Mesa, CA 90241.

Golf Classic To Draw Top Women Pros

Ladies Professional Golf Association tour members, due to arrive here in two months for the first annual Cubic Corp LPGA Classic October 17-20 at Stardust Country Club, will bring with them the hottest race for money honors in the LPGA's 24-year history if present trends continue.

As August began, 1974 money leaders Jo Ann Carner, Jane Blalock and Jo Ann Prentice were bracketed within a range of just over $500—a virtual tie considering that well over a million dollars has already been disbursed through 23 tournaments.

Carner has pocketed $60,145, Blalock $59,665 and Prentice 059.612, as of this week, according to LPGA headquarters in Atlanta.

Behind them were Open Champion Sandra Haynie with $51.009, Carol Mann with $44,879 and Sandra Palmer with $40.705.

Most amazing statistic in 1965 except for 1969, was back this year's LPGA tour is that Kathy Whitworth, leading money winner every year since in seventh place with $38,280.

Known as "The Jack Nicklaus of women's golf," Miss Whitworth earned $82,864.25 in official money last year, an all-time record by more than $17,500. With a third of the tour left to go, Carner, Blalock and Prentice all have an excellent chance to set a new annual money-won mark.

All of the leaders are expected to compete in the $35,000 Classic here, especially in view of the close race for earnings honors.

They are also being counted on for the Pro-Am to be played at Stardust on October 17.

Steve Brooks Due to Ride In 'Rocking Chair Derby'

Steve Brooks, a member of Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame and the fourth leading jockey in history in number of winners, will ride Wednesday, Aug. 28 in Del Mar's second annual "Rocking Chair Derby," it was announced by Donald B. Smith, executive vice president and general manager of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club.

Brooks thus will join seven other retired riders in the 5½-furlong betless exhibition, a unique event which attracted nationwide attention a year ago when it was inaugurated at Del Mar before the largest weekday crowd in the seaside track's history.

Brooks ended a brilliant 32-year saddle career in 1970 after gaining recognition as one of the sport's truly great competitors. His total of 4,447 winners in 30,264 mounts is exceeded only by Bill Shoemaker, John Longden and Eddie Arcaro.

Associated with such powerful stables as Calumet Farm, Dixiana and Claiborne Farm, his mounts earned $18,214,947. He piloted champions Citation, Coaltown, Two Lea, Ponder. Hill Gail, Ridan, Bardstown, Spy Song, Doubledogdare, Mount Marcy and Wistful.

In 1949, Brooks won the Kentucky Derby and many other stakes aboard Calumet's Ponder, while in 1951 he was aboard Citation when that great runner became the first horse in Thoroughbred annals to win more than $1 million with a momentous triumph in the Hollywood Gold Cup. In 1950, he and Citation bowed by a head to Noor and Longden in an unforgettable renewal of The San Juan Capistrano at Santa Anita.

The 52-year-old Brooks will journey West from Chicago where he currently is assistant to tainer Harold (Baldy) Tinker, whose stable is campaigning this summer at Arlington Park.

Opposing Brooks will be Dean Hall, winner last year on No Dispute; Hall of Fame member Ralph Neves, runner-up with Dusty Kris; Ken Church, Bill Harmatz, Angel Valenzuela, George Taniguchi and, possibly, Longden. The latter, 67 years old, has been exercising horses from his stable in the morning, but a definite decision is being awaited regarding his participation in the "Rocking Chair Derby" again this year.

Davis YMCA Holds Summer-End Swim

The close of summer nears, however, there is still time to take swim lessons at the John A. Davis Family YMCA. With children being more exposed to swimming pools during the summer months, the need for water safety and drown proofing increases as summer comes to an end.

Classes are being offered at all levels from Mom and Tots (for mothers and infants) to advanced lessons for prospective competitive swimmers.

Registration may be completed by visiting the Y at 8881 Dallas st. in La Mesa. More information may be obtained by calling 466-4161.

San Diego Frigate Makes Manila Run

The San Diego based guided missile frigate USS Jouett (DLG 29) paid a port-of-call visit to Manila, Republic of the Philippines, thru Aug. 13. Commanded by Captain Roy F. Stadler, Jr., of San Diego, Jouett is currently on a deployment to the Western Pacific, operating as a unit of the U. S. Seventh Fleet.

Rutherford Andretti Sign For California Grand Prix

ONTARIO — At least two winners of the famed 500-mile race, Johnny Rutherford and Mario Andretti, are primed to bid for honors in the California Grand Prix Sept. 1, at Ontario Motor Speedway.

The Labor Day weekend road racing program, sponsored by Coca-Cola, enlists an international cast of drivers in the Formula 5000 Championship Series, co - sanctioned by the Sports Car Club of America (SCCA) and the United States Auto Club (USAC).

Heading the foreign delegation will be Brian Redman and David Hobbs of England, Canada's Eppie Wietzes and Australia's highly-touted Warwick Brown, making his first start in America.

Rutherford, who won this year's Indianapolis race from 25th starting position, also scored this sumer at Pocono, Pa., to become the first man to win two 500-mile speedway races in a season.

The Fort Worth, Tex., speedster suffered a hairline fracture of the left leg in prepping for his only other previous Formula 5000 road race of the season. He crashed into a guard rail while practicing for the series event at Watkins Glen, N.Y.

Ten days later, wearing a cast on his injured limb, he drove to fourth place in a 200-mile USAC race on the high speed Michigan International Speedway oval.

In the road racing series, Rutherford teams with Hobbs in the Carl Hogan Racing Team Lolas. The two also were teammates at Indianapolis in McLaren racers, where Hobbs finished fifth behind Rutherford.

Andretti, the 1969 Indy winner, has captured two straight Formula 5000 races with his Vel's Parnelli Jones Viceroy Lola to vault into a tie with Redman for the series point lead. Each has 50 points.

The Italian-born resident of Nazareth, Pa., scored in the races at Watkins Glen and at Elkhart Lake, Wis.

New rules instituted after the Elkhart Lake event are expected to bring out several additional USAC teams and drivers for the Ontario event. The changes waive the mandatory pit stop for turbo-charged racers, more commonly found on the oval tracks and also raise their fuel limits from 40 to 60 gallons.

In the California Grand Prix, drivers will find a re-structured 2-9-mile road course at Ontario Motor Speedway, now being run in a counter-clockwise direction for the first time.

Football Facts for Women at Grossmont

Grossmont College will conduct a one-day football seminar for women on August 17. The seminar will open at 8:30 a.m. in room 575 with registration and coffee.

The seminar will afford an opportunity for football widows to start conversation going again on weekends during the football season. Participation in the seminar will give women the opportunity to learn things about football they always wanted to know but never dared ask their husbands.

The all-day seminar will feature demonstrations and explanations of both offensive and defensive plays with Grossmont College football players and coaches participating.

According to Grossmont College head football coach Dave Jordan, the seminar will also reveal what goes on in the huddle, give an explanation of the official rules and signals and explain the prevention and treatment of injuries.

If you want to become a better informed spectator of the sport of football, attend this football seminar for women. A registration fee of $5 will be collected at the door.

Off-Road Races Set For Riverside

WILMINGTON — Speedking Mickey Thompson, president of SCORE International, announced a world championship off-road race for the Riverside International Raceway September 28-29.

The race will be run over a rugged 3.8 mile course in full view of spectators and will include all types of two and four-wheel vehicles battling for class wins and over-all honors.

Motorcycles and 4-wheelers will be in separate events.

Entries are now being accepted at SCORE headquarters, 2701 E. Anaheim st., Wilmington, CA 90744. Entries will be limited.

Motorbike Stolen

Richard Lee Wald of 3755 Fairway dr., Brookside, left his 1971 Yamaha 5-speed 250cc motorcycle at the home of his parents while he took a weekend vacation.

During the period, a thief took the vehicle from the unlocked garage of his parents who live at 1945 Skyline dr., Lemon Grove.

The loss was $350.

Accidents Claim Half Of Stocks at Cajon

A double destruction derby looms for Cajon Speedway Saturday night if the past two weeks is any indication of how the super stocks will attack their 17th meet of the '74 season.

For the second wek in a row only half of the 20 car field was able to finish the 30 lap main due to accidents.

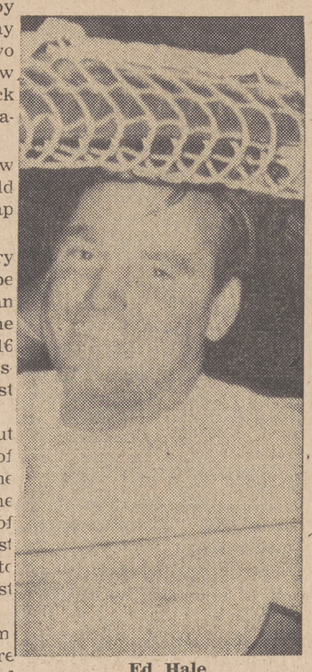
A new point leader, Gary Crossland of Lakeside, will be looking back as Ron Overman of El Cajon, the leader for the last seven weeks dropped 16 points behind him as Crossland finished second in last ween's slammer.

Two top runners will be out with new engines, Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove blew his engine in the garage the day of the race and Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley picked first place in the main event to destroy his power plant in last week's program.

Protests will figure prominently in this week's feature as cars were weighed and measured to check for possible violations of the rules immediately after the race last week.

A full 9 event program along with the popular 20 car destruction derby will be featured at the ⅜ mile, asphalt oval. Mayhem of the derby will take place after the 30 lap stock car main event.

Top out-of-town drivers are expected to return as Bill Spencer and Bill Osborne of Pomona, Earl Owens of Banning showed for last week's action.



Ed Hale

Spencer holds the Cajon Speedway fast time record of 17:40, the fastest lap ever recorded by a stock car at the Cajon oval.

Attendance continues towards the 100,000 mark, the goal of the 1974 season.

Gates open and qualifying starts at 6:30 p.m., with first race ready to roll at 8 p.m.

Stars Listed On State's Sports Clinic

Several famous athletes will conduct a series of sports clinics at San Diego State Saturday.

The clinics are part of Sports and Fitness Day which is co-sponsored by Californians for Physical Fitness, San Diego State Department of Physical Education, and the Associated Students.

Athletes participating in the event include professional football stars Rosey Grier, Mike Garrett, and Joe Kapp; Bob Beamon, Olympic gold medalist in the long jump; Olga Connally, Olympic gold medalist in the discus; Russ Hodge, former world record holder in the decathlon; and Maxie Parks, a U.C.L.A. track star in the 400 yards.

Masters track stars Dr. George Rhoden and U. S. Senator Alan Cranston will also participate. U. S. Senator Alan Cranston is a former Stanford track star who set a world record for 55-year olds in 1969—running the 100 yard dash in 12.6 seconds.

Sports and Fitness Day is open to the public of all ages and admission is free. Registration will be held in Peterson Gym 8:30-9 a.m. with the clinics running 9-11:30 a.m.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Wow, look what they gone and done. The Chargers, Gawd love 'em, have gone off and won two games in a row. And even the old conjure woman on top of Mt. Helix can't remember when Gene Klein's troops last turned that little trick.

And a rookie quarterback led the way. One of San Diego's own. Jesse Freitas, late of San Diego State, an Aztec, the mogul of Montazuma Mesa, the master of San Mateo, drafted in the sixth round after 130 of Saturday's heros had gone before him, took more time than the usual law allows and slew the Jets of New York.

In this time of labor strife and strike, what could be more fittin' that for Ol' Jesse to do the deed in overtime.

A new rule, folks. Just something dreamed up to add spice to the National Sunday Fare. They're trying it out on Saturday nights to see if it agrees with the loyal and hardy booster bunch.

And in San Diego, the new rule passes u-nan-a-mously. Now that's a hurried view, but the reason is just. San Diego is 2-and-0 against the world of the NFL. And ain't that somethin',

The longest streak the Chargers held last year was a one game winning effort, and here it is, the 1974 season is just two games old and Talented Tommy Prothro and his raw recruits hold a two game edge on the world.

The hoot and holler guys are all saying it's just luck and don't pay it no mind, 'cause as soon as the mighty veterans, that bunch of dreamers last seen hangers 'round the front gate with hope in their eye and a lump in their throats, report in, things are going to change. Maybe yes and maybe no.

What ever they're doing, let's keep it going. As a long and loyal fan, much more loyal than the Chargers have ever been to me, I say, keep it up. I like having a winner. Wooooeeee, two ad ohhh. Ain't it grand?

It's not that I want to keep the strike going. Not that I want to see a bunch of guys I know and like pushed back like a herd of enlisted men waitin' for the first liberty boat. Everybody knows it's ensigns first and the ranks to the hindmost.

There're guys that were manning those picket lines I feel mighty close too and feel for and all that kind of stuff. They're a good bunch. They deserve better than they have been gettin'.

It seems, from off here in the faraway, that their front guy is doin' a helluva job making a name for his-own-self. Never mind that a few players fall by the wayside as beginners got better and jobs get earned.

Seems like most of those front gate types were gettin' caught between the well known rock and the hard place. They deserve the "cooling off" time.

Everything seems late this year. Even Jesse took six extree minutes and connected to Glen Bonner, a free agent running back who logged 91 yards running and 45 flying for 136 total. Which ain't all that bad for a gent looking for employment, and the dude from Yakima tallied the last six and Klein's crew was there with two. Two wins. Lordy . . . ain't it beautiful.

And now they journey to Seattle to do battle with the guy that showed Jesse how it was. The Chargers tangle this Sunday afternoon with none other than Don Coryell, the former master of Montazuma. You'll be able to see it all on KCST 39-TV beginning with the pre-game doings at 1:30 p.m.

Now with the "cooling off" in full swing and a lot of hands to choose and pick from, the question is, who's gonna play.

When you are dealing from a hand that just a pair, you got a right to be pickey about what cards you want to add to your hand.

Looks like there's going to be one helluva football season to be seen in San Diego this year. Sure hope they got enough tickets to go around.

Jack O'Halloran Meets State Champion Friday

Mickey's Coliseum of Swat was packed last Friday. It should be thus. He had two world-rated San Diegans fighting — each in a 10-rounder against adversaries advertised as "worthy". So "Irish" Art Hafey and Jimmy "Tex" Heair, registered knockouts to the delight of about 3,200 fans.

This Friday, another packed house appears in the making. And why not? Big Jack O'Halloran, who was at one time last year heavyweight champion of California and champion of Bully's West is back. He lost his state title to Howard "K.O." Smith on June 8th, 1973 on a split decision that carried a strong flavor of "home town advantage".

Friday's fight is billed as a grudge match and that may be so. Smith agreed only to 10 rounds. 12 rounds is needed for a championship fray. Smith is said to have reported that O'Halloran was overweight — another reason for the non-championship status. Whoever thought up the overweight heavyweight classification should win a prize for imagination.

Monday at the weekly meeting of Sportscasters / Sportswriters Assn. O'Halloran appeared ready to blow his top.

Angry Fighter

"I've been waiting 14 months to get another crack at this guy and now he isn't even man enough to risk a crown that I should've never lost in the first place," says Jack angrily.

Of course, O'Halloran could always claim the belt anyway, providing he turns the trick of upsetting Smith on Friday.

This, however, looks to be a large task unless Jack has a much better night than he did against the Korosetta Kid on July 12th. In only his second comeback fight after undergoing serious neurosurgery, Jack didn't help his recovery any by taking several shots on the head during the contest. It was only lacerations and lumps around both eyes of Korosetta that gave Jack his 39th win in 53 pro outings. Without those lumps which obscured his vision, O'Halloran would not have been awarded an 8th-round TKO. He might not have even won the fight.

Smith, on the other hand, who recently stopped Tony Doyle in defense of his title, has a more impressive slate of 16-2 with 13 kayos.

In a co-feature on the Smith-O'Halloran show, newcomer Jimmy Caffey (14-2) of Youngstown, Ohio, will meet San Diego's Marco Gerardo, a recent winner over heralded Armando Muniz, in a 10 round middleweight match.

And beginning this Friday, amateur boxing will kick-off each Coliseum card promptly at 8 p.m. On tap every week will be three bouts at three rounds each, with some of the top talent in the area to be featured.

A week from Friday, August 23rd, Chilean middleweight senstaion Renato Garcia will be back in action at the Coliseum against durable Jose Martin Flores.

Last Week

It was a slightly different, and more poised Art Hafey who won a technical knockout over Fino Rodriguez of Los Anggeles in one of the two main event Friday night.

Hafey had been working out with lightweight Jimmy Heair who shared the other 10 rounder with Nacho Castenada of Tijuana. Hafey reverted to his brawl-style from time to time, but mostly, he boxed. He did it very well, too. He far outpointed Rodriguez and at 2:37 of the 10th round the referee stopped the fight when Rodriguez, beaten into submission, was unable to defend himself.

It gave the little Irish bull a record of 34-1 with 25 knockouts.

In the 10-rounder between Heair and Castenada, it was Heair all the way although he suffered a split over his cheekbone. Heair's lightweight record is just a bit ahead of Hafey's with 36-1. As in the Hafey fight, the referee stopped the brawl. This one came at 2:47 of the 8th round.

There were three undercard bouts. Manny Lujun, the spiffy San Diego high school lad, made it 6-0 by beating Jewell Chappel of Los Angeles. The referee stopped it at 2:36 of the second round of a scheduled 6-round fight. He was the third San Diego fighter of the evening to hammer his opponent until he became defenseless. Another TKO.

In a 6-round featherweight prelim, Tommy Nava and Armando Miendetta fought to a unanimous draw.

In a lightheavy 4-rounder between two rookies, Hugh Bailey of L.A. and Fernando Jones of San Francisco, there was very little defensive action and Jones was awarded a TKO, the fourth of the evening, in the fourth round.

Fillies and Mares Programmed For Del Mar Week-end Schedule

Fillies and mares will be in the Del Mar spotlight this weekend when the seaside course presents the $20,000-added Osunitas Stakes on Saturday (Aug. 17) and the $30,000-added Del Mar Oaks Sunday (Aug. 18).

The Osunitas Stakes is programmed for non-stakes winning older fillies and mares at a mile and one-sixteenth on the grass, while the Del Mar Oaks is the championship race of the summer season for three-year-old fillies at a mile and one-eighth, also on the turf.

Among prospects for the Del Mar Oaks is Aaron U. Jones' Miss Musket, who in her most recent appearance was trounced by Easterner Chris Evert in their $350,000 match race at Hollywood Park. Prior to that loss, the daughter of Gunflint had won the Hollywood Oaks over Lucky Spell and Modus Vivendi, both of whom also are nominated to the Del Mar Oaks.

Modus Vivendi, a filly by Rising Market owned by B. J. Ridder, administered Miss Musket's first loss when she accounted for the seven-furlong Railbird Stakes. In her lone outing this season, Modus Vivendi was third to Sphere in the opening-day Palomar Handicap at 7½-furlongs on the grass.

Lucky Spell, a daughter of Lucky Mel owned by the partnership of Burris and Wilder, turned in several good efforts at Hollywood Park, including her second to Miss Musket in the Oaks and a victory over Modus Vivendi in the Princess Stakes at a mile and one-sixteenth.

Also awaiting the Del Mar Oaks is Leone J. Peters' royally-bred Bold Ballet, who notched her first stakes success when she won the San Clemente Stakes early this month over Shah's Envoy and Sweet Ramblin Rose. Bold Ballet, a daughter of Bold Bidder, clicked by a half-length in 1:44 flat for the mile and one-sixteenth over the turf.

Other Oaks candidates are S. J. Agnew's Bedknob, J. C. Pollard's Chalk Face, Lee R. Miller's Heather Road, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Johnston's Sweet Impression and A. W. Pejsa's T.V. Aglo.

Nominees to the Osunitas Stakes include such hard-hitting feminine performers as El Peco Ranch's Mon Miel, Louis R. Rowan's Ready Wit, half-sister to Quicken Tree; Don Sturgill's Dear Intent, King Bros.' Kamadora, Peter Valenti's Go Miss Go and Austin Dwyer's Sweet Creek.

Firemen Show Wares at Dail Concourse

A manned fire-engine will be on display from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. August 19-21 at the Dail Concourse.

Other Fire Department displays will also be viewed as part of the "Finest City Celebration" continuing through August 25.

Police Must Notify Victims of State Funds Says Younger

Effective immediately, law enforcement agencies must notify all victims of violent crimes and/or their families of the availability of State funds and other assistance under a new section of the Government Code, State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger announced.

The new law, in effect since July 1 and part of the State Attorney General's legislative proposals last year, provides the following:

1. Victims can recover up to $10,000 for the cost of unreimbursed medical expenses resulting from injury.

2. Victims can recover up to $10,000 for loss of income resulting from injury.

3. Victims can receive up to $3,000 for participation in job-oriented rehabilitation or retraining programs.

The Government Code spells out the responsibilities of local law enforcement who must "inform victims of the provisions" of the law and must "provide application forms to victims who desire to seek assistance." Forms will be supplied by the State Board of Control.

The Attorney General's Office, under the code, must "set forth standards to be followed by local law enforcement agencies . . ."

"The objective of the new statute is to assist the victim not only in taking care of hospital expenses and lost wages, but also to aid him to once again become a self-sufficient member of society," he noted.

"The concept of this program is not welfare, but rather a way for the State to help a person—the victim of violent crime—who has had a setback."

The official pointed out that "under the new law a person is entitled to receive compensation from the State only if he or she can show that the monetary loss resulting from the violent crime caused serious financial hardship.

"The State Board of Control, which rules on payment of compensation, has adopted regulations which better define the exact circumstances under which a person may receive money."

Younger emphasized that one of the objectives of the new law is "to let the public know that there is such a law, and that the State has funds to compensate victims."

1st National Builds Casa de Oro Branch

Southern California First National Bank has announced plans to build its sixth East County office on the northwest corner of Campo rd. and N. Bonita st. in Casa de Oro. According to Frank Shughrue, vice president-regional administrative manager, construction is scheduled to begin in September and will be completed in early 1975.

An overhanging roof tops the brick-bordered, glass banking facility, designed by Russell Forester, AIA. A mature live tree will be featured in the contemporary decor of the 2000 square foot interior.

Six drive-through kiosks and four interior teller stations are planned.

Finest City Museum Film, Botany Walk

A series of summer afternoon treewalks through Balboa Park will be presented by the Natural History Museum on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 16 through 18 at 2 p.m.

The hour-long walks will be led by volunteers from the San Diego Botanical Society. The events will form part of the city's "Finest City" week activities. No reservations are necessary. Groups will form at 1:45 p.m. at the Museum's west entrance.

Film

In "The Living Soil," new film at the Museum Aug. 17 and 18, scientists explore top soil, the surface layer of the earth's crust which harbors destructive pests and disease.

On the same bill is "Pesticides in Focus," which records the development and use of pesticides. Films are shown Saturday at 3 p.m. and Sunday at 1:30 and 3 p.m.

The Natural History Museum will be open in the evenings during America's Finest City Week weekend, August 16 through the 18th.

Labor Survey Taken By Government

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment in this area during the week of August 19-23, C. Michael Long, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Los Angeles, announced today.

This survey is conducted monthly by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of households throughout the entire United Sttaes. The employment and unemployment statistics which are based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, in June the survey indicated that there were 90.9 million men and women in the civilian labor force and 86.2 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate, 5.2 percent, was at a level that has held fairly consistent since the beginning of the year.

Facts supplies by individuals participating in the survey are kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Citizens are not compelled to answer questions.

Cash and Rings Taken

Money and rings valued at $25 was the loot taken from the home of Jean Marie Wilcox of 7854 Alton st., in Lemon Grove.

The items were taken Monday while she was away from home.

Willey Gets Service Post For VFW

KANSAS CITY., Mo. (Special) —Commander-in-Chief Ray R. Soden, of Bensenville, Illinois, has appointed Dale Willey, of 7145A London Lane, Lemon Grove, V.F.W. Post 6874, to serve as a member of the V.F.W.'s National Convention Committee on Veterans Service.

The committee will meet during the 75th Anniversary Convention of the organization, August 16-23, in Chicago, Illinois.

The resolutions, originating at the Post level in communities throughout the United States and V.F.W. Posts overseas, and later passed at Department (state) conventions will be debated and those passed on the convention floor will become organization policy for the coming year of the V.F.W.

"Willey has been active in the V.F.W. and is familiar with the goals of the organization. He is well qualified to help formulate policies and I look forward to working with him," Soden said.

In addition to hammering out the goals of the V.F.W. for the coming year the delegates and committee members will hear many national leaders speak on topics of national security, veterans legislation and other items of national interest.

'Y' Water Games Set

The John A. Davis Family YMCA will hold their second annual swim carnival August 24.

The event will be a morning of swimmer and non-swimmer races, games, stunts, demonstrations and will be climaxed by a penny diver. For more information call 466-4161.

Contract Award for L.G., Spring Valley Water Main

Ham Brothers Construction, Inc., of Lakeside, was awarded a $87,300 Helix Water District contract last week for a pipeline replacement project in three areas of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

Areas in which small diameter pipe will be replaced by six and eight inch mains include Hartzel, Golf and Foursome drives in Spring Valley; and Madison ave. between Buena Vista and New Jersey avenues in Lemon Grove.

According to Harry Griffen, Helix Water District president, the new lines will replace pipe with bad leak records which are no longer adequate to meet present fire protection standards.

Other bidders were Metro-Young of La Mesa, a joint venture; R. S. Construction Co. of San Diego; Sully-Miller Contracting Co. of Oceanside; and Hood Corporation of Whittier.

In other action, the board approved in principle a long-term lease with Lake Jennings Mobile Home Park for a portion of district property overlooking the lake. Lease income will be utilized to further develop recreational facilities at the lake. Income is expected to exceed $20,000 per year.

Grossmont Sign-Up Signals Fall Terms

Under the new 1974-75 Grossmont College calendar, regular Fall semester day and evening classes will commence on Monday, August 19 and close on Friday, December 20. The Spring 1975 semester will start Monday, February 3. This extended winter recess will allow students to complete their Fall semester final examintions before Christmas and provide them with the opportunity to seek extra holiday employment as well as a longer rest from their studies.

The revised calendar will give students more days off during the year-end holiday period bewteen semesters while still maintaining the usual number of teaching days.

Because of the early opening date for the Fall semester, the application deadline has been extended to Friday, Aug. 9. All students must apply by this date in order to receive a priority for registration scheduled for Aug. 14 and 15.

Bobby Riggs Back For Tennis Clinics

SAN DIEGO COUNTRY ESTATES—Bobby Riggs is at it again. And, like his tennis serve, his story always has a twist.

This time he is out to help women's tennis. Riggs says he is concerned about his undeserved image as the world's foremost male chauvinist.

"It's a misunderstanding," he says. "I love women. I've always contended every man should have at least two."

Riggs still insists he has some reservations about women's tennis. "Now I want to help," he adds. With that objective in mind the former world champion will hold four clinics "for ladies only" at this resort community 38 miles northeast of San Diego.

Riggs will hold forth on the same court where he defeated Margaret Court in their memorable Mothers Day match in 1973. The clinics are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. There is no admission charge.

"The gals can bring their husbands or boyfriends," adds Riggs. "But they should remember I'm going to be teaching them how to beat those guys."

State Roadway Bids Open

The California State Department of Transportation announced recently that bids for a San Diego construction project will be open on Aug. 29.

The project will involve curb easing and resurfacing from Cuyamaca Lodge to 0.6 miles north of Yaqui dr. and the resurfacing of a 4.3 mile stretch from Hwy. 76 to San Felipe rd; reconstruction of roadway and shoulders from Henshaw Maintenance station to one-half mile south of Mantagual Valley Creek, in central San Diego County.

Monies for the project total $406,000.

Burglar's Loot is $355

Charles B. Spisak, associated with Goodwill Industries, who lives at 1680 Taft st., Lemon Grove, was burglarized of $355 worth of items earlier this week while he was away from home.

Spisak said the intruders took a tape recorder; a multi-band radio; a set of silver service, a slide projector and several other silver items.

Valley 'Heart Attack' Call Produces Corpse; Drug Charge

Sheriff's deputies, responding to a call August 6 from a Spring Valley resident concerning a possible heart attack victim, found instead a corpse and a cache of restricted substances including marijuana.

Deputies found David Wayne Malacina, 20, dead in the living room of a two-room apartment at 9208 Harness st., which was shared by Robert Lee Beatty, 23 and Larry Amboy Montoya. Montoya had placed the call. All three are listed as sailors with the U. S. Navy.

The Sheriff's Department said that Malacina had been dead about a half-hour when they arrived and this was corroborated by the coroner's office. There were no marks of violence on the body. Death may have been caused from an overdose, it was first indicated.

During a search for a probable cause of death, deputies unearthed various restricted substances in the apartment.

A partial list included 565 "whites". The tablets weighed more than 25 grams; a vial of 10 reds; four baggies of marijuana weighing 180.6 grams, and a bag of marijuana seeds weighing 678.5 grams. Beatty and Montoya were arrested for possession of restricted substances and marijuana and transported to County Jail.

Deputy John Boldman of the Sheriff's Homicide Section said the cause of Malacina's death was uncertain and it would be another week or 10 days before the toxicologist's report would be completed.

Reduced School Tax may Fall Four Cents in Spring Valley

Last week's budget slash by the trustees of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School district resulted in the adoption of a $14.8 million figure for the 74-75 school year.

The action will, in all likelihood, result in a tax rate drop of nearly 4 cents.

The tax rate is set by the county Dept. of Education and will be reviewed by the county supervisors later this month.

The Asst. Supt. for Business, Dale Hobon, said the tax rate will probably drop to $2.857 cents per $100 assessed valuation however, the total drop may be greater when assessed valuation figures are complete.

The budget decrease is due mainly to several one-time-only capital expenditure projects in last year's budget, staff reductions at schools, and transportation and media aid cutbacks.

The budget adopted by trustees for the past year was $15.6 million.

Rwanda — $2.9; Senegal — $2; Spain — $4.6; Sudan — $16; Taiwan — $80.4

Tanzania — $12.1; Togo — $2.1; Tunisia — $21.4; Upper Volta — $2.2

Uraguay — $5.5 and Zaire — $15.3.

The above figures are in millions. A special category is for South Vietnam which will receive just under two billion dollars ($1,911,600,000).

Those countries receiving less than a million dollars are:

Burundi — $400,000; Central Africa Republic — $300,000; Chad — $400,000

Brazzaville — $400,000; Cypress — $600,000; Dahomey — $500,000; Gabon — $500,000

Guina — $300,000; Malawi — $400,000; Mauritania — $300,000; Oman — $200,000

Portugal — $900,000; Saudi Arabia — $200,000.

"This is a perversion of American wealth and American goodwill. We are unwittingly subverting the aspirations of the very people we are supposed to be trying to help. And we are mindlessly undermining our own economy," Cranston said.

What is equally irritating is that there are some countries in the list whose names many of us don't even recognize.

'Biggest' Bar-B-Q For John Stull

Felicita Park in Escondido will be the site for this year's "Senator John Stull Birthday Bar-B-Que," according to Chairman Einer May. The annual event will be held on August 25th, noon until six p.m.

"This year promises to be the biggest and best salute to John Stull ever," said May. The menu for the day features home-cooked bar-b-qued beef, with beans, cole slaw, bread, dessert and beverage. A special treat for kids 14 and under will be a delicious 100-foot-long banana split.

Bar-B-Que chairman May said that this event offers north County residents "an opportunity to show our appreciation to Senator Stull for the great job he is doing." This is the seventh annual Birthday Bar-B-Que salute to the Senator.

Admission to the event is free, however, contributions are encouraged to assist the Senator in his re-election campaign.

Mickey's Missiles Clinic Scheduled

A track clinic for boys and girls from toddlers to 17 years of age, and women, will be conducted by Mickey Tyler, famed leader of Mickey's Missiles.

The clinic will be held in Balboa stadium August 19-29, 10 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Registration is required by August 19 and the fee is $2. A Missile T-Shirt is given to everyone who signs up.

The first week is for training and workouts. Meets will be held the second week. There will be medals and ribbons for winners and runners-up in 14 scheduled events.

The project is sponsored by the Black Action Committee at 2780 K st. in San Diego but is not restricted to backs.

Additional information is available at 233-8883.

Evades Gas Payment

The guy drove up in a light colored Thunderbird Monday and pumped $6 worth of gasoline into the tank.

He was not very communicative because he drove off without paying Brenda Marie Bowles, the cashier at the Pit Stop, 7081 Broadway, in Lemon Grove.
